

Getting Ahead of Crisis

Using de-escalation techniques to help children cope with stressful situations

Presented by:

Kerri Stroka, Director of Special Education at Orange-Ulster BOCES

and

James Higgins, Assistant Director of Special Education at Orange-Ulster BOCES

Through this two-hour session you will be given an overview of the skills needed to recognize potential crisis in children and respond in providing support and then teaching pro-social ways to cope with stressful situations.

Training Dates: Select one date

4/11/2016

4/12/2016

*Place: Orange County Department of Mental Health
30 Harriman Drive
Goshen, NY*

Training time is from 9 a.m. - 11 a.m.

Doors will open at 8:30 a.m.

Training is free but is limited to 40 people each day

Register on-line:

www.bookeo.com/orangecountymentalhealth

click on "Special Events" to choose this training for one of the dates listed above